“ Peggy, Jennifer and Carolyn, My dear cousins and family, I am so sorry for Jim's passing. I have some fond memories of our childhood. I am sorry for the suffering he endured related to his military service which I understand took his life early. Please know my family is grateful for his willingness to serve our country and for the example that service he and so many others performed provide for our youth. I know our faith in Jesus Christ and that hope for an eternity we know exists will sustain all of you at this time. love,
Dottie
