“ Gosh I miss this man and all of his generation. So many memories I wish I could live again. He was a second grandpa to me, and I LOVED his visits to SC. Even over the years we would talk from time to time. He was a good one and I sure look forward to seeing him again one day.

“ Hey y'all, so sorry to hear of Otho's passing. I know it's been a long time since we've seen each other. I think maybe the last time was at Travis' or Dad's funeral. Just know that I wanted to send my love and sorrow during this time to the family of the earthly loss. We'll all meet again in heaven one day and what a family reunion it will be. Love y'all, Steve Hall (Keith & Lura's son)

“ Dear Stephens Family, My name is Winter. I am a participant in an international volunteer work. I am sorry for your loss. In my work I offer comfort from the Scriptures to families that have lost their loved ones in death. An example of what I share is in the Bible at Isaiah 25:8,9-He will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces. And the reproach of his people he will take away from all the earth, for Jehovah himself has spoken [it]. 9 And in that day one will certainly say: "Look! This is our God. We have hoped in him, and he will save us. This is Jehovah. We have hoped in him. Let us be joyful and rejoice in the salvation by him."Did you notice the what will happen to death? It will be swallowed up. Death will be no more! Another scripture is John 5:28-29, it reads: Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice 29 and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment." This is a promise that those dead will be ressurected to life on a paradise earth.(Psalm 37:29) Reading these scriptures have helped millions through the grieving process and beyond. I am confident they will do the same for you. For further information go to www.watchtower.org. Sincerely, Winter Gainey
