“ *I often remember back to a time, many MANY years ago, a cousin (Letie), and I , spent the nite with Uncle Jim and Aunt Lillie Mae, (James' parents). Letie and I were riding Cricket, a Shetland pony of theirs...and, James came out of the house wearing a big cowboy hat and cowboy boots, and, had a long black horse whip in his hands! He began flicking that whip at Cricket, and another horse...(can't remember its name now), but, I yelled at James not to hurt the horses! He replied back in his Southern drawl, "I ain't gonna hurt em...I'm just getting their attention!" He is going to be missed by so many people, cause he was 'one of a kind'! So very sorry for your loss, but, we KNOW we will meet up with him in Heaven.

“ Jim, your dad lived a long life but losing a loved one still creates a void in our life. However, dwell on the many memories you and he had together, and I know he was proud of what you have made of your life and may you and your family find peace during this difficult time.

“ I remember when I was just a girl, Marie and I spent the night with Aunt Lillie May in her little house on the highway. James new where we were sleeping, so when it was dark, he started making strange sounds outside, and tapping on the window. We were so scared until he finally came in the house and admitted it was him. He's always been a love bug and a joker as far back as forever.
