

Janet Sue Ahenger

July 27, 1946 - September 29, 2022

Janet Sue Ahenger, 76 of Leesburg, FLA.

Mrs. Janet Ahenger passed away September 29th at home.

Janet was part of the first graduating class of Shore Regional High School, Long Branch, N.J. She was also one of the first to be crowned "Queen of the Long Branch Arts Festival " her senior year.

Janet attended classes at Monmouth College, now called Monmouth University in West Long Branch, N.J.

She was born in West Long Branch, N.J.

After retiring from First Merchant's Bank she moved to East Stroudsburg, PA. She lived there for many years but found the winters to be too harsh and relocated to Florida.

Janet loved her gardening and watching all the birds. She was always there to help her friends and neighbors with whatever they might need.

Janet was a breast cancer survivor.

Janet is survived by her son, Robert E. Theune of FLA, her sister, Melissa Kaplan and brother in law, Allan Kaplan of PA.

As per Janet's request there will be no service. Her remains will be brought to the the family cemetery at St.Peters Church, Spotswood, N.J.

Tribute Wall

MK

“ *Janet is my big sister. I love her very much.
She helped everyone she came in contact with and never asked for a thing in return.
I miss her more then words can say* 💔😭💔

Melissa Ann Kaplan - October 17, 2022 at 09:31 AM