“ To Uncle Joe, Lynn, Rick, Larry and all the family, I want to offer my sincere condolences on Aunt Janet's passing. I want you all to know I would have done almost anything to be there. I was driving home from work and I couldn't stop thinking about aunt Janet. It was so strange, but as soon as I arrived at home my mother called me and told me the news. To say it was strange is an understatement, but somewhere in her passing I believe she may have sent me a thought. When I briefly lived in Florida, I really enjoyed seeing Uncle Joe and your mother. They were both so kind to me and offered me to stay over. We had dinner and a good conversation. Uncle Joe and Aunt Janet were married for so long and were so close that I know your father is feeling the loss and it is weighing on him heavily. I know she is with the Lord and in good hands. Her faith was so strong and I hope Uncle Joe's faith can carry him through this loss. Thinking and praying for you all. Hal Money
