Obituary of Janet Taylor

Janet Ruth Taylor, 83, of Leesburg, died Sunday, August 17, 2014. She was born July 9, 1931 in Youngstown, OH and moved to Leesburg, FL in August 1945. Janet was of the Baptist faith and a devoted mother and homemaker who showered everyone in her family with love and support. She also worked outside the home, and spent many hours sewing, quilling, creating craft items, and assembling jigsaw puzzles. She enjoyed nothing more than preparing great food for her family and teaching recipes to others. She will be sorely missed by all who knew her.

Janet is survived by her husband of 65 years, Robert; two sons, Robert(Pam)Taylor, Jr of Alexandria, VA; David(Cathy)Taylor of Auburn, AL; daughter Nancy(Keith)Trumbull of Fruitland Park, FL; one grandson, Dillon; six granddaughters, Meredith, Ashley, Jennifer, Allison, Amelia, Sarah and four great grandchildren. Also surviving are two sisters, Arlene Wagner and Gail Emerson of Leesburg. Janet was predeceased by her parents, George and Mildred Hnizdil.

“ Janet was welcoming, serving, giving, kind, understanding, patient, loving, understanding, forgiving, dedicated, and a wonderful example of what a mother should be. I loved her. I always will . I am very sorry for the family's loss and I pray for comfort and peace to you all. Fill the hole in your hearts with all of the wonderful, wonderful memories you have and over time, you will all be okay.
