Obituary of Janice Vargas

Janice Morgan Vargas died 30 July 2012 at the age of 57 in The Villages, FL. Her husband and family members were by her side. Jan was born December 7, 1954, in Rochester, PA to John and Evelyn Cameron Morgan.

Jan moved to Janesville, WI, when she was 15, where she attended Craig High School and later the University of Wisconsin, Madison. In the mid 1990s she began work with Carnegie Mellon's Software Engineering Institute. In 2001, she met and six months later married COL (R) Kevin Vargas. In 2010, the couple retired to The Villages, Florida.

Jan's kindness and warmth were infectious and touched all she met. She made friends wherever she went, and it was one of her customs to give new acquaintances nicknames: from Skittles to Dr. Allstate to Dr. George Peppard. All were charmed by her friendliness. Jan's strength and support were a firm foundation for her family and friends through good times and bad, and her careful cultivation of relationships resulted in friendships that stretched over more than five decades.

Memorial services to be held in Janesville, WI, and in Washington, DC, will be announced at a later date.

Jan is survived by her mother Evelyn; husband Kevin; step-daughter Kelaine; step-son Kevin, his wife Whitney and their son Wren; siblings and spouses Phyllis and Kenneth Thyman, Larry and Karen Morgan, Michael and Loretta Morgan, and Jay and Kristi Morgan; brother-in-laws and their wives Joseph and Mary Ann, and John and Veronica; and 23 nieces and nephews.

In lieu of flowers memorial donations may be made to: www.caringbridge.org or Cornerstone Hospice of The Villages, 601 Casa Bella, The Villages, FL 32162.

“ My prayers and condolences are with the family at this time. When I think of Jan - I have such positive and happy memories. We went to elementary school together, reconnected during our teen years and then again recently on FaceBook. Ever since our Kindergarten years, Jan was always gracious, kind and funny! The world will miss her spirit and Heaven receives an angel. Love to her family and loved ones.

“ It is with a heavy heart that I read this. We grew up together and went to elementary school, she was at my birthday parties, sleepovers and we had a close group of friends. She was charming, funny, outgoing and said what she thought. We had contact a few years ago and then lost touch again. We had a chance to remember our childhood. I have a heavy heart and am sad of such a tremendous loss. God just got another angel and she won't let him down. Mrs. Morgan, siblings and all that were touched by her, you are in my prayers along with my family, Dorothy & Debbie Martoia. God Bless

“ I did not know Jan for very long, but I will always remember her warm and friendly smile. Though she did not graduate from the RHS Class of '72, she remained a part of it even after her family moved. That says a lot of her out-going personality. So sorry to hear of her passing. My sympathy to all whose lives that Jan touched.
