Obituary of JASON HATT

Jason Hatt of Eustis, went on to his eternal life with his Lord and Savior Jesus Christ! Jason was foremost a devout Christian and Servant. He was a very loving husband and father. Family was very important along with his loving friendships. The many things in life he loved were: sharing his faith, fellowship with other Christians, his men's group, golf, football (Go Bucs!), motorcycles, cooking and baking, and scuba diving.

Preceded in death: mother Elizabeth Patterson Leedom, her husband Joseph Leedom, and sister Jennifer Delucian Hatt. Grandparents: Van and Isobel Patterson, Herbert Eugene and Mary Elizabeth Hatt Jr. Survived by: loving wife Heather Walker Hatt, son Ramzie James Hatt. Father: Dana Lee Hatt and wife Deborah. Nephew Avery Dillon. Step-brothers: Jason, Johnny and Clay Leedom. In-laws: George and Denise Trenfield, Doug and Micki Walker. And blessed with so many other family members. In lieu of flowers donations can be made to the family at any United Southern Bank Branch.

“ Jason,,you been an awesome friend to know and have. Glad we met and I never seen a bigger BUCS fan then yourself. We shared alot of memories in the time we have known each other...you are and will be missed my friend and we will see each other again one day. Ramzie will be so proud of his daddy,,he will be just like you--a good man..
