“ Mickey,
Our hearts and prayers are with you and your family. We enjoyed the times we spent with you and your beautiful wife Jeannie. She was as beautiful on the inside as she was on the outside. We are glad she was able to go on the Victory a few weeks ago and that she had so much fun. She will be missed. Mickey, if we can do anything at all to help you and your family please just let us know. Our door will always be open to you.

There are no words that can ease your loss of your wife, your mom and our friend. Jeanne was an exceptional person. Everyone loved her because she would always be there for anyone. We had some good memories up North. We love you all and we know she had a safe journey home.

“ Mickey,

Eric and I are so sorry to learn of Jeannie's passing. You have lost a long time great companion. We only knew she was in and out of the hospital but this comes as a big shock. Jeannie will be sadly missed as a friend and great host. We sure miss playing cards with everyone. Things will not be the same without her. Please call if you need anything at all.
