“ Jean was my husband's (Larry Scott) cousin and I had the privilege of knowing her because she was family. One of my favorite memories was a talent show where she some of the family wore Pillowcase costumes that made them look like small, short-legged people who were dancers. Or something like that. It was such a fun skit!!

When Larry was diagnosed, Jean shared a book with us that had recipe for some potion that had helped her at a previous time.

My condolences go to Wayne and all the family.

“ I knew Jean more then 50 years ago when she lived in New Hampshire. She was a kind and a wonderful friend who was always willing to help. The best way to describe Jean was her tremendous love of family and her great sense of humor. My sincere condolences go out to Wayne and all of her family. Her spirit will not be forgotten.

“ In loving memory of Jean Bariteau. I didn't have the pleasure of knowing you personally, but I feel a little like I do just a little because of your granddaughter. I have no doubts that you will live on in the many hearts that you touched, the hands that you held, and the wisdom you passed on. I'm praying for your family to find peace and comfort. God Bless.
