

Jean Buchanan McGowan

September 14, 1941 - November 11, 2024

On Monday, November 11, 2024, Jean Buchanan McGowan, 83, went home to be with our heavenly Father. Born in Staunton, Virginia on September 14, 1941, she lived a life full of compassion, kindness, and selflessness. She always put others before herself & touched the hearts of everyone she met. She loved travelling, visiting friends and spending time with family.

Jean is preceded in death by her parents, Carl & Adelaide Buchanan Sr., her daughter Carla McGowan, her beloved husband of 47 years, Don McGowan and her brother, Carl Buchanan Jr. Though their absence left a deep void, she carried their memory throughout her life.

She is survived by her son Greg McGowan (Penny), her granddaughter Meagan McGill (Richard), her grandson Dale McGowan (Makayla), and great-granddaughters, Reagan & Paisley McGill.

As the most amazing Grandma, Jean adored her grandchildren and spent every moment she could with them. Her boundless love, compassion, and dedication to her family & friends will forever be cherished by all who had the privilege to know her.

As per Jean's request there will be no public services. A Celebration of Life is being arranged by her family and will be announced at a later date.

“ Aunt Jean will be missed greatly! I enjoyed her visit. She loved to play Rummikub game with my mother. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family during this difficult time.
Love,

Now that Christmas is nearing it makes me think of one a few years back. You came to my house & we made big pretty bows for all the pillows on my porch. You were good at it, me not so much. The fun part was you keeping your eyes moving watching for lizards, there were always many on my front porch. I knew you didn't like them but we stayed there until the pillow were dressed for Christmas ❤️
