“ I never knew Jean was Girl Athlete of the Year for her high school - she was such a little thing - really? Jean? I do know she was a very strong woman - I met her when I was 21, and admired her back then for her steadfastness in what she believed. A pioneer for that time - I will always remember that about her. Besides her wicked sense of humor:) You are off to another experience - I will look up to the stars tonight and know you are amongst them now.
