“ So many wonderful things to say about such a wonderful person. It's still seems like just yesterday you were blessing us with your presence and knowing all that I have now is just the memories in my mind and hearing the sound of your voice in a distance. I know you wouldn't want us to be sad and I'm sorry I can't be there to say my final goodbyes. I will forever hold that last hug I received from you in my heart forever. If I could just tell you how much you truly meant to me. But deep down inside I know you knew that you were the most important woman in my life . Just know I love you so very much and I will continue to honor you and remind the kids about how much of a loving, kind wonderful woman you were. Love forever your Paulie
