“ I sure am going to miss our talks when I would visit you at the farm to do whatever handy work needed to be done. I remember how much you enjoyed the vegetables that I used to bring you from my garden. I remember the time that huge black snake got in the house and we searched for it for hours and hours... I just found out that you passed today, I am so sad... I am praying for you and your family. Rest in peace my friend. Bud
