

Jeanne Byrd

January 31, 1935 - June 27, 2015

Obituary of Jeanne Byrd

Jeanne Ann Byrd crossed the finish-line of life's race on earth and joined her husband of 52 years, Ralph E. Byrd, Sr. in heaven, on June 27, 2015. If she could speak to you now, she would say that life on earth is but a vapor compared to the eternal glory of heaven. She would also ask you to please receive Jesus the Son of God as your Savior insuring your entry into heaven where we will be made whole, have no more tears and we'll never be separated again.

Jeanne is a descendent of the Mary Woods Reagle family of Michigan. Her children and their spouses are son Ralph and wife Judy Byrd, son Ronald and wife Barbara Byrd, daughter Ruth Ann Byrd-Key and husband Jim Key, and daughter Melody and husband Charlie Capehart. In addition surviving Jeanne are many grandchildren, great-grandchildren and great-great grandchildren. Also surviving Jeanne is her sister Ada and husband Eugene Manwarren, brother Arthur and wife Lou Alice Clayman, and brother Darrell James (Bucky) Clayman. Jeanne was predeceased by sister Karolyn (Billie) Lee Barraclough.

Family and friends are invited to:

A viewing on Wed. July 1, 2015, 6:00pm to 8:00pm, at Beyer's Funeral Home
- 1123 W. Main Street Leesburg, FL 34748

A funeral on Thur. July 2, 2015, beginning 11:00am, at Ferndale Baptist Church - 15050 CR 561A Ferndale, FL 34729

Flowers are welcome, or in lieu of, please make a donation to Ferndale
Baptist Church.

Childhood and working years...

Jeanne was born in Marshall, Michigan, on January 31, 1935. Her family moved to Orlo Vista, FL, when she was five years old. She grew up there, attended school and married, Ralph E. Byrd, Sr. In 1953, they moved to Plymouth, FL, where their four children were born and husband Ralph worked at Minute Maid. They attended Plymouth Baptist Church. In 1965, they moved to Leesburg, FL, where husband Ralph worked for Gulf Life Insurance and Jeanne was a full-time homemaker. They attended West Side Baptist Church and later on, First Baptist Church of Leesburg. Jeanne was a Christian. Her faith in Jesus Christ, the Son of God, as her Savior and Lord, was unwavering and sustaining through every triumph and trial of life. She did not "talk faith" near as much as she "walked faith" in kindness of heart reaching out to others with whom she'd gladly share whatever she had when she saw a need. Jeanne's greatest legacy is undoubtedly her humble, unconditional love of others. Jeanne was gracious, a faithful wife, a consummate homemaker, a solid rock of goodness, cleanliness and motherhood - just the kind of great American woman that our country was built upon in the middle of the twentieth century. She excelled at preparing fine meals, especially at holiday time. After

Jeanne's youngest child entered high school, she loved cooking so much that she made it her career working in public school lunch rooms for 25 years until retiring at age 62.

Retirement and declining years...

Jeanne and her husband had always maintained close family ties with their brothers and sisters regularly visiting each others homes. This did not change when they retired. Several brothers and sisters bought cabins in the Great Smoky Mountains, so, Jeanne and Ralph bought one too. There they attended Cold Springs Baptist Church in Alarka, NC. Their retirement years together were very happy, but did not last long. Due to an ATV accident, Ralph died in 2004. Jeanne began a long period of grieving and loneliness. In June 2006, a fire damaged her old home. After that, she moved to live with son Ralph and wife Judy just around the corner at "Glory Oaks". There, Jeanne bloomed again. She wasn't lonely anymore! She and daughter-in-law Judy did everything together: cooking, shopping, exercising, grandkid visits, attending church and weekly Precept Bible Study class. Jeanne also loved being outdoors with son Ralph. They planted a garden, raised chickens and walked nature trails exploring the beautiful woods and swamps of Sunnyside. Day's end found Jeanne, Judy and Ralph in rocking chairs on the back porch. Jeanne was peaceful there taking in the beauty of God's creation and spotting wildlife. Her favorite was a bright red cardinal. On that back porch is where Jeanne also shared her precious memories. Some were happy, some sad and some never heard before. In 2009, Jeanne began showing slight signs of dementia. Her doctor said she still had some good years ahead. Jeanne became more determined than ever to enjoy life to the fullest until finally, she entered a nursing home in late 2013. There, son Ralph visited her daily and managed her care. He fed her breakfast, read to her and pushed her outdoors to view God's creation, only now from a wheelchair. In June 2015, Jeanne declined sharply and was moved to Cornerstone Hospice where angels came and carried her to heaven.

Tribute Wall

RE

“ Jeanne Byrd

REByrd - July 11, 2015 at 12:00 AM

NW

“ Aunt Jeanne was a precious woman to me. Though we did not know each other well she treated me like one of her own. My mother was the one sibling to precede her in death. I know they are watching us now and will be there for us as well. Rest well aunt!

Norita Wilson - July 01, 2015 at 12:00 AM

SA

“ I just wanted to say thank you to my dad and mom, Ralph and Judy Byrd for taking such great and loving care of my Granny Byrd.

Sherri Adams - July 01, 2015 at 12:00 AM

SA

“ I would like to send my condolences to all of those that grieve the loss of my beloved Granny Byrd just as I do. However I am so happy to know that she is walking around Heaven on streets of gold , whole and restored , with the Angels and our Heavenly Father. I liike to remember the smiles on her face at family gatherings of sorts when her family was around her and usually partaking of her awesome cooking!!! The Word of God says that we will all live for eternity somewhere. It is my belief that she's not dead just moved on to her eternal home in Heaven. I love you Granny!!!

Sherri Adams - July 01, 2015 at 12:00 AM

SA

“ I just wanted to say thank you to my dad and mom, Ralph and Judy Byrd for taking such great and loving care of my Granny Byrd. ###GESTURE###

Sherri Adams - July 01, 2015 at 12:00 AM

SM

“ dear Raph and Judy, I wrote 670 too many characters so I guess I can't write much, but I am thankful to know that your mom left such a legacy to you. She , undoubtedly, was a great woman of God. And it is obvious that she has truly affected all her family, friends, neighbors and more. It is hard to separate when our parents or loved ones move on, but it is a good move for her. rejoice and rest and fulfill your calls on earth. that is what we will give an account for I believe. so I bless you both and trust His loving care for you as you grieve rightly so, but rejoice too that she is so safe in the Father's House and heart now. Love to you both. trust this next few months will give you a new vision for your lives too. love Sylvia McCullars sylvia mccullars - June 30, 2015 at 12:00 AM

JD

“ Dear Ralph, Judy and Byrd Family, I only had the pleasure of meeting Jeanne once, but the stories of love and happiness that she brought to you and Judy showed me what a wonderful mother and friend she was to both of you. I know I will have the chance to see her again, and learn to know her better for I have accepted Jesus as my Savior and Lord. Maybe I could go to her house and rock with her on her back porch like she did with you. Jeanne's picture is beautiful and the memories that you shared with us was wonderful. I can see why you both were so proud to call her mother.

Judy Dees - June 30, 2015 at 12:00 AM

LW

“ At this time of sorrow we are rejoicing with you in knowing that your mother is at peace with Jesus. She was a joy to know. We had wonderful times singing and visiting with her & family. We see a big smile on her face as Jesus says to her "Well done my good and faithful servant".

Larry & Dixie Wooten - June 30, 2015 at 12:00 AM

CM

“ I knew Mrs Byrd when I was younger and she was such a sweet loving lady. My prayers are with her family

Cheryl Morrot - June 30, 2015 at 12:00 AM

DV

“ Ralph and Judy: The loss of your mother takes a toll on your heart and leaves an emptiness inside. But as you know the end of life on earth for those who know the LORD JESUS Christ is the beginning of eternity with Jesus. When you miss her just remember where she is and what she is doing and joy will fill that emptiness. Mama touched so many lives on this earth in such a Godly way she is probably right now placing a crown at the feet of JESUS. If we all could follow her example, the world would flourish with blessings!

David and Valanna - June 29, 2015 at 12:00 AM

RB

“ We love you mom. We will see you again in heaven some very glad day!

Ralph & Judy Byrd - June 29, 2015 at 12:00 AM

“ Jeanne Byrd

June 29, 2015 at 12:00 AM