“ Dear Jeanne, When I think of you I remember what a thoughtful, kind and generous soul you were.

Joan and I had just married and we were lucky enough to move into the "Honeymoon flat" at 6510 Honore. It was a very hot summer that year and that second floor was like an oven, of course when you are in love a little heat doesn't bother you. But we were surprised to find out some of Joan's family were coming in from Baltimore to stay with us. Jeanne you said, "Why don't you get an airconditioner, I can get you a deal on one" I think you were working at Westinghouse. That thing saved the day...

Rest in peace...Untill we meet again...Love, Pete
