“ Oh my brother..how I miss you so. My heart is selfish and wants you here with me, but God has chosen to take you back home to be with him. I trust him and know that soon enough, we shall be laughing, talking about football and walking those gold lined streets hand in hand. I love you so much Jeff..so do so many other people. You would be so suprised at how you leaving us has impacted so many..Until I get there, keep sketching your beautiful pictures in the clouds and be with me as I continue my journey here on earth. I can feel your presence around me all the time. Stay close to me Jeff just like we have always been..you are my heart..I love you and miss your impersonations of Arnold Swartzneger and so many others..I'm so glad we got so much closer these last few months. I'm certain God had a hand in that. Wait for me..I'll be home in Gods time..Love, your sister...Sandie (Dottie O Ree)

“ Jeff my Son, I miss you so much I can not express the loneliness I feel now that you are gone. I feel so hollow and empty. We were so close in life and now I find you in every name I say, I call them Jeff. If I only knew for sure that you are at peace and that you left knowing that you are half my life and your sister Sandie, the other half. You are my first born and I just can't wrap my head around you passing away before me. It's not suppose to be that way. You are so loved. Until we meet again, Momma.

“ Jeff, I am so glad that I got to reconnect with you 2 years ago and we had so much fun doing karaoke to Rappers Delight! God has a plan for all of us and he brought close friends in your life to reunite with you again. You had your wit and sense of humor until the end. You are truly entertaining all in heaven with a sense of peace, grace and southern charm. Mama Pat and Sandie, I truly love both of you. You were my second family when I was a teenager. I will always be grateful for your love and caring. May both of you have consolation in Jeff being with the father, Jesus and the angels in heaven. My utmost condolences in your time of mourning.
