“Jeff you were someone that came into my life at the right time. You were part of who I became. From sitting around and goofing off to playing golf, from racing our RCs to playing poker. You were my friend and you were my best man. I will always treasure those days. Although we drifted way from each other with me landing in Ga and you staying in Florida. We spoke now and again and saw each other even less, but we never skipped a beat. I was blessed to talk to you while I had a chance, and after forty years it was just like before. Rest in Peace my friend. Love you buddy and I will hold you close to my heart forever.”
