Her kindness and commitment left a lasting impact on those she cared for throughout her career.

“ I just found out that Jennifer passed away earlier this year. She was my Home Health nurse last year after I had back surgery. I ended up needing a 2nd back surgery last week and specifically asked for her to care for me again. Then I was told the sad news. I just absolutely loved her! We were close in age. I knew she had been sick. We both shared our love for animals too. But most of all, she was a compassionate, caring person who loved helping others and I knew I was in good hands. Her smile was contagious. My condolences to her entire family. “How lucky I am to have something that makes saying goodbye so hard.” -Winnie the Pooh

“ Jennifer was my husbands home health nurse for over a year, WE LOVED HER. She was always upbeat, on the ball, and very caring. We got close in that year and shared some life stories, I was always amazed of her fortitude and how her struggles did not affect her demeanor and care. We are heart broken. I can't tell you how much she meant to us. You, her family, have our deepest condolences, please take comfort in knowing how many lives she touched and the benefit her patients received. I can't put into words what she meant to us.
Our deepest sympathy

“ What a goofball she was, and definitely a perfect match for Billy. I remember when they first met, he told me he was so in Love with her. I hate that her life was cut short, but really enjoyed the interactions between her and Billy. Say hi to Jesus for me

“ We were neighbors and had developed a great love for Billy and the other Jennifer. Her kind and loving heart was evident in her work and her love of animals but more importantly her love of Billy ,Samantha and God. I will miss her and our chats and friendly wave. I will try to give extra pats to the pups. Heaven's gain is our loss
