“I had the privilege of knowing Jerred during our time in the Marine Corps. We were roommates and like brothers. He was somebody that was full of life and loyal to his friends. After being stationed in Camp Pendleton, CA for 2 years together, i was sent to OKI, JA and we lost touch. I'm saddened and hurt to see that after years of unsuccessfully trying to find him, he has passed. The world was a better place with Jerred in it. My condolences to his parents and sister who i had the pleasure of once meeting and especially to his wife and children whom i have never had the honor or privilege of getting to know. Semper Fi Jerred. You will be missed brother.”
