“ Pauline, Jerry will be missed and I pray that Our Lord gives you strength during this difficult time. Keep the wonderful memories of him close to your heart. I will always remember the party at your house in Highland Lakes and we both wore a butterfly top... and Jerry hugging both of us in his arms and stating " I have the best of the both Pauline's right here in my arms". God bless you and comfort you as Jerry always did.

“ Aunt Pauline, We wanted to let you know just how much we love you and that our prayers of comfort are with you. We're so thankful that we had an opportunity to see you and Uncle Jerry a couple of summers ago. We know that only God can see you through this time of loss. Just know that Jerry is now resting peacefully with our Father in heaven. We will continue to pray for your strength. Love, Alma, Cameron, Debra, Beverly, & Valerie.

“ Uncle Whitey.....I will miss you with more than words can say. You and Aunt Pauline were such a great part of my life. My parents loved you both so much. With my father passing 9 weeks ago, I know the "two fools" are causing more chaos than we can imagine now. I hope your good memories can find you some comfort in this tough time. My love and prayers to you Aunt Pauline and your family. God Bless and I love you, Gabrielle (Chooch)
