Oh my Lord, I am so very sorry for the loss of your father Cathy, Rick, Greg and Lee. I always loved your dad and his sense of humor and boy could he talk your ear off. I'll never forget him being there at my son's visitation and memorial service, it meant so much to me. I mean, who would have thought, but that was just how caring and loving he was. Then when mom lost Ken, he was there a lot to keep her company and to take her to lunch of which I really appreciated that too. Such a Godly and giving man. May he rest in heavenly peace and many blessings to all of you. Much love, cousin Karmen.

“ I grew up on Q Drive just down the road from their home. Didn't know him that well as he was older than me. My parents always spoke highly of his family. So sorry for your loss.
