“ Sweet Alice: Have just learned of your loss and know your heart is breaking; however, we also know that Jerry was a child of God & now he is not suffering, but dancing with his Lord. May you be comforted by God's word "you'll never walk alone". Al & I have moved to Georgia so we can't be there, but we are with you in spirit our sweet and special friend.

“ Words cannot possibly express our feelings of love that our SCREA has for Alice and her faithfulness in bringing us devotionals of faith and joy at our meetings. The loss of her husband Jerry is our loss also and we share in her sorrow. Heaven is richer and God comforts us.

“ I've lost a wonderful neighbor and friend. But Jerry has gained his reward. He is now with his Lord and Savior Jesus. Our neighborhood has lost someone very special and he will certainly be missed but always remembered and loved.

“ Alice and family: Joyce and I are grieving with you as we go through this time of loss. We remember meeting you and Jerry early on in our first visits to FBC, Bushnell. I always enjoyed Jerry's good sense of humor and could never get him to stop calling me Mr. White. Dan is all I need. Love you guys! Dan White

“ Dear Ms. Alice and Family, You are all in our thoughts and prayers and we grieve with you. I know that Mr. Jerry is in a fine place with our Lord and would not come back if he could...but those left behind hurt so much. Praying that God will give you the peace and the strength that can only come from Him. Love and prayers, Lori, Stoney and Family.

“ What a pleasure it was to work with Jerry over the years. Jerry was in the store all the time and I know that most of the time he was there to help someone else. We will truly miss Jerry and are blessed to have known him.
