“ Jerry was my boss for several years at 3M , he was one of the best supervisors I ever had. He was down to earth, friendly and a pleasure to work for. He also cut me a lot of slack when I needed it. A genuine good guy, I'll miss him ,I considered him a friend. We had fun at work and outside of work golfing, bar hopping , ann other social events. RIP Jerry

Jerry was a great guy. I met them going to their house to cut Cheryl's hair and visiting with them and Doc. The first time I was at their house he asked where I had moved from and told him Bourbonnais Illinois and he piped up and Said, we are from tingly park. He loved chocolate cake so I would drop them some when I made one. He would say between you and Mary Ellen u keep us supplied. When I would leave he always told me to enjoy my day 😊 He took such great care of Cheryl and was so kind. What a lovely couple and will be missed in our neighborhood Arlington Ridge
Leesburg, FL

So sorry again for your loss and will be praying for your family at this difficult time. Give your mom hugs for me. ❤️🙏
