

Jerry B Stegall

June 20, 1940 - January 19, 2017

Obituary of Jerry Stegall

Jerry B. Stegall, 76, passed away January 19, 2017 in Leesburg, Florida. He was a native Floridian, born in Leesburg on June 20, 1940.

Jerry was a man of great faith whose first love was his Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, followed by his love for his family. He attended Grace Tabernacle and Trinity Assembly of God. Jerry was an avid Gators fan and enjoyed the outdoors, especially working in his yard to make it beautiful, as well as keeping up with current events. He shared his joy of life by making people laugh and sharing his wisdom. He loved unselfishly helping people in need. He also took pride and joy in his job working as a courier for Villages Cycles.

He is survived by his wife of 19 years, Barbara of Fruitland Park; daughters: Kelly Kramer of Georgia, Melanie Baker of Alabama, and Karen Clelland of Leesburg; son Mark Hall of Fruitland Park; 6 grandchildren: Cody, Carley, Gibson, Janie, Julia, Adia; siblings: Barry Stegall of Eustis and Mona Sanford of Leesburg; as well as other extended loving family and his beloved dog, Bowman.

A Funeral Service will be held Tuesday January 24, 2017 at 11:00 a.m. in the Chapel of Beyers Funeral Home, Leesburg, FL with Pastor Chuck Padgett Officiating. In honor of Jerry please feel free to wear orange and blue (or Gator apparel). A viewing will be held the hour prior to the Funeral Service. Interment will follow at Hillcrest Memorial Gardens in Leesburg, FL. Online condolences may be left at www.beyersfuneralhome.com. Arrangements entrusted to Beyers Funeral Home and Crematory, Leesburg, FL.

“ So sorry to hear our dearest and long time buddy and friend has gone to meet the Lord. We have so many great memories of the times we shared. We met Jerry waiting at Lake Brantley High School to pick up our daughters, Kelly & Vicki, who were singing in the chorus, about 40 years ago. You might say we have been life long friends. We will miss him and all the fun we always shared!
