

Jimmie Sue Nichols Latham

October 31, 1944 - January 15, 2018

Jimmie Sue Nichols Latham, age 73, died Monday January 15, 2018 in Tavares, Florida.

Born October 31, 1944, in Pahokee, Florida to Alma and James Nichols, she was a retired Special Needs teacher and a member in good standing of her community and her church.

Jimmie Sue will be especially remembered for her sense of humor, quick wit, sense of adventure, free spirit and love of the Lord and her family.

She was a beloved daughter, sister, wife, mother, aunt and friend and is survived by her nieces, nephews and great nieces and nephews. She was very much loved and will be missed deeply by her family and friends.

Tribute Wall

SL

“ I got to know Jimmie Sue when she became my helper with 1st and 2nd grade Sunday School. She loved the children and was a big help to me! After her fall she was not able to come to church, but we visited her and she always made us smile. I will miss her, but am happy that she is no longer in pain, and is with Jesus and her loved ones.

Susan Lima - January 18, 2018 at 07:45 PM

GL

“ Sister Sue, I pray that you are now dancing with Jesus. So many little children in our world are much better off because of your loving care. Thanks for the years you looked after my brother Jerry. Peace be on you for eternity. In Christ's Blood

Gene Latham - January 18, 2018 at 04:00 PM

JR

“ Aunt Sue how we are going to miss you!! I will miss our daily talks and all your wisdom you shared with me. I know you are at peace and in paradise with our Lord and your family you have so dearly missed. Until we meet again. ❤️🙏❤️

Jamie Roper - January 18, 2018 at 02:17 PM