What a great man, Jimmy was one of God's finest creations. He loved, gave, helped everyone he crossed paths with. He loved all children and always had time to listen, teach, and help them with his expertise in baseball, my children included. He was the most loving husband, grandfather and all of his family members. I am very proud to say Jimmy was my nephew (by marriage), but no different than a blood relative. I know your crown is filled with many jewels by all the great works you did for all. Rest easy and enjoy your Heavenly Home. We're going to miss you Jimbo!

I'd known Jimmy since Highschool, I have always had the utmost respect for him. We have indeed lost a Great Man but God has His own purpose for Jimmy. He will be missed.

Me and Jimmy went to school together, every morning we were late cause we rode with Porky. Then we hung out at his house when baseball season was off. We played on same team and took the championship in 1978! Good times. Lost contact after school but through social media. I will say Jimmy was a mans man with a heart of gold who loved his family. If there is anyone you would want your kids to look up to or mentor it was my friend Jimmy. God bless his family may he RIP and i will see him again!

So sad to just now learned of Jimmy's passing. I've known Jimmy since elementary, competed with him on the baseball field for many years. He was a natural pitcher on the mound. Jimmy always had a kind soul and heart. Never heard a bad thing of Jimmy, he was just always good and good to everyone. He was the way we all should be. Always a smile when we met. RIP my friend you'll always be remembered! Larry White
