

Joan P. Cook

October 22, 1937 - September 3, 2025

Joan P. Cook, 87, passed away peacefully on September 3, 2025. She was preceded in death by her beloved husband, Clark Cook, and her son, Stephen R. Cook.

She is survived by her daughter, Deborah Cook Osborne, and her son, Mark A. Cook and his wife, Linda G. Cook. Joan was a proud and loving grandmother to four grandchildren: Jamie Busby, James H. Busby (Dawn Elizabeth), Chad A. Cook, Emily K. Cook (Trapper Fletcher). She was blessed with seven great-grandchildren: Tyler Bell (and wife Madison Bell), Jaylyn E. Bell, Braxten Matz, Boen Fletcher, Kenny Ray Busby, James Hunter Busby, and Penelope Cook.

Joan was truly one of a kind. She loved her family unconditionally and was a woman of strong faith, devoted to Jesus. We take comfort in knowing she is at peace and at home with him.

Joan spent most of her life working as a florist, a profession that matched her warmth and creativity. She has a special love for Miss Daisy's and deeply cherished her time working alongside her dear friends like Bob Tucker. Joan always made sure those she worked with felt appreciated and loved.

There are too many beautiful memories to fit on paper, but one thing we all know: Joan was our rock. Her unwavering love, strength, and example will continue to guide us for the rest of our lives.

A viewing will be held on Sunday, September 7, 2025, from 1 to 3 PM at Beyers Funeral Home, 1123 West Main Street, Leesburg, FL 34748. A graveside committal service will take place at 11:00 AM on Monday, September 8, 2025 at Hillcrest Memorial Gardens 1901 CR 25A in Leesburg.

We love you, G. You will always hold a special place in our hearts. Save us a place by the river.
