“She's in a better place now Charlie, where you'll see her again. Now though, she is home with a new body, no pain, awaiting us all. Zina and I share your loss, and trust you and your family will find peace after we all share in grieving her leaving us.”

“ I am sorry to hear about Aunt Joan passing. I can't imagine your grief and I am sure she will be sorely missed. My fondest memory of her was when she stayed with Dad one summer and baked us oatmeal cookies. They were delicious and I still make them today. She was a great lady. I know she is in a better place now and her mind and body are once again as they were. I know you will miss her terribly but please take comfort in that she is at peace now. Love Debbie
