“ I met joan at the Ohio Club 14 years ago. She was my first friend having just moved to the Villages as a widow. . We found out that night that we were both at Bowling Green State University at the same time , but didn't know each other. Joan introduced me to a man named Phil Haggard she had met and that man became the love of my life. Unfortunately he passed away after 7 wonderful years. After this, Joan and I joined the singles club where Joan and I had so much fun dancing the evenings with single men, some good, some not so good. We always had a good time and a lot of laughs.

I didn't play bridge but, we had a foursome that went out for lunch almost ever month. Joan and I always remained faithful to the Ohio Club. The Ohio club said good by to her this past week. I'll miss her.
