“ JoAnn - you taught me to be genuine, to be myself, imperfect as that may be. You never judged, you only listened. You just wanted the best for me and I will love you always as a dear friend. Thank you.

“ Linda and Ed, I know it has been a long time (really not that long) since JoAnn passed. I didn't find her obit in the local newspaper and didn't know about this site. I have thought of her on many occasions since July 2010 and have said many prayers for her. I am currently working on a 50 year reunion for the nursing school class of OMH Class of 61. I didn't know Ed's last name and couldn't remember your last name either Linda. I just had a thought to google her name today and it took me to Sydney, NY High School reunion last fall. So I called the library in Sydney and they gave me the link to the funeral home so I could get her obit for our book. You can contact me at cookiebrown11@gmail.com I would love to hear from either of you. JoAnn was one of my closest friends in nurses training. Ann Cook Brown aka Cookie
