“ My grandma was a huge inspiration in my life. She was a strong person and was kind and caring. She always lit up the room when she walked in and I knew there was something special about her. She is the best grandma that could ever be in this world.

I love you, Grandma xoxo

“ Mom, Your love is a blessing to me in so many special ways. Thank you for always being the kind of Mother who is warm and gentle, generous and sentimental, understanding, patient & kind. You were quick to give encouragement and thoughtful words of praise. May God bless you for being the wonderful Mother that you always were to me.

It's planting season again and I'm missing our yearly tradition of searching the greenhouses with you to find just the right flowers, veggies and hanging baskets to make our gardens grow. I am imagining that the garden where you are now in heaven is the most beautiful of all the beauties you made, so many of them, throughout the years. Love you forever Mom XOXOXO 🌸🌺🌻🌻🌻
