“ I just want you all to know that you remain in my thoughts any prayers. I just found out today about Jody passing. She was an awesome lady, and I really enjoyed getting to know her and swimming with her at the YMCA. She will be missed by all of us at the pool. I hope you all find great peace in knowing she is in heaven and is whole and no longer suffering. We shall all see her again!!

“ To the Family of Jody...I was so sorry to learn of Jody's passing. I had the honor of knowing her as a coworker at LRMC for several years. Although we didn't work in the same dept and I didn't see her often, it was always a pleasure to run into her in the hallways. I saw her not long ago and spoke in passing. Had I known it would be the last time , I would've have stopped to talk. We have no promise of another day in this life. I pray your sweet memories of her will carry you until you meet again.

“ We are all praying for you guys during this difficult time. Praising Jesus that we know for a fact that she is in Heaven with Him! There is so much peace in knowing that our loved one is in Heaven with no pain more pain or sorrow. There is also so much comfort in knowing we will see her again. I can just see in my head her and Julie reuniting again! Such a special moment seeing her son, daddy, sister, and Savior! Aaron & Duncan, words cant express all we want to say to you guys - but please know that we are here for ya'll whenever and you guys are welcome up here anytime! It makes things much easier to cope with when you have such a loving and supportive family. You guys have to hang on to each other - the sibling bond only gets stronger from here (we know from experience). Grandma Nelson - you are one strong lady! We are very proud of you and your steadfast Faith in God! You are truly a Godly example for others to follow. Please let us know if you guys need anything! Love, Nick, Brittney, Sydney, Savanna, & Will Watt
