“Dear Micklos Family, My name is Winter. I volunteer in the community comforting ones with God's Word the Bible. I am so very sorry for your loss. To Roxanne and the rest of the family, I strongly hope you all grieve peacefully and get through this time. In my work I have found that grief is handled differently by each person and lasts different amounts of time. Please continue to help each other and never rush another through it. There are scriptures I regularly read that remind me of the promise that I will see my loved ones who have died again. They are: John 5:28-29, Acts 24:15 and Revelation 21:4 which reminds us of the changes that will be brought to the earth. Again, my condolences. Sincerely, Winter
