“ John was a great husband, father and grandfather. Though I only knew him for a short time, I could see this from the moment I was welcomed into Barbara and his home with Alex, they have always welcomed me with open arms. He was always a pleasure to be around and it made me so happy to see the bond of him and his grandson. He was a hardworking man, this you could tell just from one conversation with him and a loving husband and I aspire to have the amazing relationship him and Barbara have. Thank you so much for the amazing memories from Christmas and even the short lunches i got to enjoy with your grandson, you and Barbara. You will be missed dearly.

“ Grandpa..

This goes to the man I called grandpa.

The man I called grandpa could never be summed up in a short story or even a long story.

He was the man that everyone loved.

He was the man that married my grandmother and became the center to my family.

He was the man that taught me the life skills I know today and the life skills that got me this far and will continue to get me threw life.

He was the man that got on all of our nerves but the man to help calm them nerves.

He was the man that some how made the holidays and the birthday more magic as we got older.

He was the man that made a man 21 years old cry at Christmas for making him a gift that would last lifetimes to come, my amazing rocking horse.

The man that told me for many Christmas before I would never get one, cause his days were done doing that..

The man that's changed my life more and more every time we spoke.

The man that was always happy till you lied to him.

The man which wrote so many amazing birthday and holiday card that got laughter and cry's out of each one..

To the man I will never forget

Grandpa thank you for being everything you could be and always more.

Thank you for making dreams come true with ever gift you gave and every speech you said.

Thank you for the memories that will last life times to come.

Thank you for tears of joy and them tears of anger.

Thank you for that amazing macaroni, and all the other amazing dishes you made!

And thank you for always believing me!

Thank you for some how always being the man I need to talk to in life.

*To the man I wanna be.
Thank you for being the man I called grandpa.
I will cherish every moment we spent together from the beginning to the end.
Godspeed till we meet again.
I will always love you Grandpa*

“ The loss of my grandpa impacted a tremendous amount of people. From his captivating voice and confident demeanor, to his ability to make us all feel so special and loved. He was the kind of man that you couldn't help but look up to. He is loved dearly and missed deeply. He's the strongest man I've ever known. His marriage was evidence of the man he was. Admiral and breathtakingly chivarle. He was a proud provider who thrived on making sure his family and home were well taken care of. He was a free thinker who always had knowledge to share. He was an incredibly talented carpenter and craftsman. From Christmas and Thanksgiving Day riddles/trivia games for fun, to serious conversations about our futures. I find myself smiling every time I look back at all the time he invested in being a grandfather/great grandfather. He had a way of making things sink in and just make sense. He had a gift for giving and a magical sense of humor. I'm so grateful for the life lessons and wisdom that he's instilled in me. I'm thankful everyday to have so many great memories of him. I'm confident that life will never be the same without him, but I know that he'll be with me in spirit every step of the way for the rest of my life. I love you Grandpa. May you rest peacefully <3 AMBER JACLIN

“ The most amazing thing I will remember about grandpa John was the way he treated his amazing wife and how much he loved his family. When I think of how a man should truly love a woman and his family, I think of him. A true gentleman of integrity and great character. A man to respect and admire, who will always be remembered as long as I live. I hope I can be half of the man and husband that he was. Although I didn't have a chance to spend a great deal of time getting to know him, it was still a great honor and privilege.

“ *Grandpa, You have always been the most amazing man in my life. You have taught me the true meaning of respect, integrity, responsibility, love, and loyalty. You have always been an angel in my life. You never failed to keep the magic alive in every holiday spent with you and Grandma. You made every Christmas a true wonderland even as we became adults and I will forever cherish those moments of love and laughter. You showed me a love so raw and so pure that I will never be able to accept anything less. Getting to know some of your family and friends has proven to me that there was not a single person that you crossed paths with that you didn't have a positive impact on. You were the true definition of a MAN, your love and legacy will live on through your family and friends. You will forever be loved and cherished! Until we meet again. I love you, forever and always. “ Dearest Barbara, We are so sorry to hear of John's passing. We always enjoyed spending time with you both at corvette functions. When we first joined CCO, he was the first one to welcome us. Please know you have our deepest condolences as it was evident the love you had for one another. He will always be with you in spirit for sure. Sending lots of love and prayers for you and your family. Sandy and Rick Janus
