John lived across the street from us in Deltona. Such a nice man and great neighbor. We hated to see him move. His sausage was the best! I met his mom when she would visit. A lovely lady. RIP John and Louise.

“ I had the pleasure of working with John in about 2006. I believe I received his lead at a real estate office. I was a new realtor and I listed him and sold his house in Deltona and then sold him the property in Bushnell. Or maybe the address was Webster. We traveled all over the state to find land where he could process his family's recipe of sausage. I always looked him up to see his successes. On closing day I had the fortunate opportunity to meet his mother and we all had lunch at this little Podunk place in Bushnell. I believe. I have always thought of him with an endearing care. We were on the phone so much. My kids started calling him. Uncle John. John, you followed your dreams. Rest well and I hope to meet again in the stream by and by.. My sincere condolences to his family and friends. With love, Donna
