“ Mike and I met in our first year of college at Florissant Valley Community College in 1969. We became great friends. We transferred to SEMO and pledged Pi Kappa Alpha. After college I tried to find Mike on social media but no luck. Unfortunately I finally found his obituary and I am so sorry we didn't get to catch up on the fun times years ago. Rest In Peace my friend. In the bonds of Phi Phi Kappa Alpha. Sincerely, Rob Cole

“ Growing up with Debbie, a close West Virginia cousin and family member, any new addition to our family was always placed under a microscope. However, in the first minutes of meeting Mike and noticing how Debbie and Mike looked at one another, that microscope was turned off.

When a few of us went out to play golf, Mike and I rode together in the same golf cart. It only took a few holes to be convinced everyone in our family would welcome Mike with the widest of opened arms. It was also after that round of golf, I truly knew he was my newest friend. By the love he communicated having for Debbie, her family, sports, & dogs, provided us with some important similarities. By his smiles, laughs, spirituality, and the stories he told (LOL.....when I let him talk), he clearly became the fastest friend I ever made.

I truly loved every time we had a chance to meet and talk. And through our faith, I know we'll meet again. When this happens, with Pope Francis confirming, "One day, we will see our animals again in the eternity of Christ. Paradise is open to all of God's creatures," Mike & I will not only be able to exchange dog stories, but we'll get to show each other our dogs as well. If not, and believing Mike would agree with Will Rogers who said, "If there are no dogs in Heaven, then when I die, I want to go where they went," we'll just do it wherever they went.

My sincere loving thoughts and prayers go are being sent out to Debbie, and all of Mike's loved ones. My sincere loving thanks and gratitude are being sent to God for giving Mike life that lived to touch many with his kind soul.
