

John W. Fox

December 20, 2013

Obituary of John W. Fox

John W. "Jack" Fox, 82, Summerfield, FL died Friday, December 20, 2013. He was born in Hamilton, OH and moved to Summerfield from Eustis in 2002. He was Catholic by faith and well known for his smooth sweet trumpet playing. Jack has performed at the Orange Blossom Opry regularly.

Survivors include his wife of 62 years Sue of Summerfield; 2 sons: Dave Fox, Pompeys Pillar, MT and Doug Fox, Eustis; 1 daughter Pam Hoskins, Springfield, IL; brother Gordon C. Fox Jr, Hamilton, OH; sister Doris Leugers, Hamilton, OH; many grandchildren and great grandchildren. He was preceded in death by 2 sons: Willie and Pinky and granddaughter Kara.

Tribute Wall

FB

“ Our sincere sympathy to the entire family of Jack Fox. We knew him from the Orange Blossom Opry for many years. He was a gentleman in every sense of the word and we were quite fond of him. He added much to the music at the Opry. He joins so many that have departed and we feel sure he is part of the old Opry gang who has gone on before him. Play one for us Jack! We love you buddy.

---

Fred and Bonnie Blevins - October 01, 2014 at 12:00 AM