“ Dear Pam, John, Tom & Family, Please accept my condolences on the passing of your husband & father. I was very shocked when I saw the obituary online. The last time I saw John was in a traffic jam on rte.80 about 15 years ago. We spoke for a little while and now I am glad we did. I pray to god to give you the strength through this trying time in your lives. I also pray for John to be at peace in heaven. I am very sorry for your loss. God Bless You All, John Stenger

“ Dear Keeting Family, its very difficult to express to all of you words of encouragement that don't sound like they came from a greeting card. Please know that all of you do not mourn alone, John was truly loved my countless friends and family. He was also deeply loved by God because in the Bible John is call Beloved by God Himself. Please take comfort in knowing how loved all of you are and that we all know that Jobn was an amazing man with a huge heart and that we WILL see him again soon. Much Love, the Lanza Family
