“ Mac and I joined the Marines at the same time, went through OCS in the autumn of 1961, and were initially assigned to 3rd battalion, 7th Marines on January 1, 1963, as rifle platoon commanders. Our battalion became 1/9 when we arrived in Okinawa, where we spent a full year together. Upon returning to the USA we became 3/5 and spent another full year together, this time as staff officers. Our paths diverged after that, but our lifetime friendship continued. Karen and I were fortunate to have had the opportunity to visit with Mac and Helen in May of 2018. Mac was an outstanding Marine and a fine man.

Rest in peace, my friend. Semper Fi.
