“ Clay and Family, I just learned of Jack's passing. My heart is broken. This is Jack's "Lori Darling" from Ohio and he was my "Gus". To explain, Lonesome Dove was our favorite movie together. I met Jack when I lived in Webster in 2006. He let me release some wild hogs on his farm that I had rescued. I'm positive he thought I was crazy, however, we become very close. It was a short time before I moved back to Ohio but we remained close with me visiting him many times. I'll never forget riding the "boulevard" with his old bronco or four wheeler looking for the wild horses and just exploring nature. I'm glad we got to visit again in March 2024 and I texted with him shortly before he passed. He was a wonderful man and will be sadly missed. I loved him dearly and know that he will rest in peace. My deepest condolences.

“ Jack was always a leader, loved his country & family. The world would be much better with more Jack Newcombs. It hurts deeply to lose such a man, always made life better for everyone he touched.
