Obituary of John Outlaw

JOHNNY OUTLAW, THE FLORIDA CRACKER COWBOY WITH A BARNYARD EDUCATION passes away.

John William Outlaw (J. W.) died Wednesday, January 25, at Ocala Regional Medical Center, from complications following an automobile accident January 19, 2017. He was 95.

Born in Center Hill, Florida, March 5, 1921, to Hammitt D. Outlaw, Sr. and Daisy Young Outlaw, he attended Webster schools, graduating from the high school there in 1941.

John or "Johnny" as he would introduce himself, entered the United States Army in August 1942, and was attached to B Battery, 244th Field Artillery Battalion at Camp Shelby, Mississippi, and Fort Benning, Georgia. From the military operations center in England, he was issued a jeep which he drove onto an LST there and then later drove off the LST when it landed on Normandy Beach in France 54 days after the invasion. At issue, the jeep had 17 miles on the odometer; eleven months later he turned the jeep in with a reading of 17,000 miles. He often said, "My hat is off to anyone who lived through that invasion." John received the Good Conduct Medal and five battle stars for action in Normandy, Northern France, Rhineland, Ardennes, and Central Europe. Corporal (Tech 5) Outlaw mustered out of the Army in late 1945. While John could not bring himself to participate in the Honor Flights to Washington, DC, he thoughtfully retraced his military steps in Dachau and Cham, Germany during a trip in 1987, while visiting his daughter Susan and son-in-law Ben who was 31D Family Life Chaplain, Würzburg.

Following his military service, Johnny settled into the process of acquiring land and beginning a farming/ranch operation in Sumter County. At the age of 29, he met his wife-to-be, Almarene Woodard, at a Baptist Training Union Seminar in Bushnell; they were married in September 1951, and moved into a cabin John built on his property in Mabel. To supplement the rising farming/ranch business, he worked variously for B & W Canning Company, Groveland; Florida Rock, Center Hill; and Florida Forestry, Richloam. Along the journey, he also drove a school bus for the Sumter County Schools. After retirement, they moved to Inverness in 1981.

In retirement, he and Almarene enjoyed traveling, woodworking and various crafting projects; they participated in craft fairs and seminars in which they demonstrated their work. Johnny especially enjoyed storytelling about old times and was an authentic Florida Cracker. He was an expert platter of bull whips, selling them to "cowboys" throughout the state as well as donating them for auction at various fund-raising events such as the annual Linden Cemetery Picnic. For anyone who called to purchase a whip, Johnny set an appointment and advised the person they would need to sit for a spell to reminisce about old times before the sale could be completed. No one ever turned him down. And, always included in his comments about his life, was the fact that he had only a "barnyard education" even though he was a graduate of Webster High School. Without doubt, as he himself claimed, he was The Florida Cracker Cowboy with a Barnyard Education.

He was predeceased by his wife of 55 years, Almarene; parents, Hammit and Daisy Outlaw, sisters Myrtle Iley, Bernice Worn, Daisy Day, and Evalena Burnett; brothers Robert and Hammit Jr.; sisters-in-law Delma Huff Saggus, Doris Woodward, Frances Hall Nistendirik; brothers-in-law Floyd Woodard, Edwin Woodard, Lester Woodard, and Mark Woodard.

He is survived by his daughters, Dr. Mary E. Outlaw of Armuchee, GA, and Rev. Susan Outlaw Stallings and son-in-law Chaplain (Maj/Ret) Ben Stallings, Terre Haute, IN; grandson Jordan Outlaw Stallings and granddaughter-in-law MaryAnn Havener Stallings of Paris, IL; niece and caregiver Marsha Woodard Perkins and husband Steve, nephew Kenny Woodard, all of Bushnell, FL, sister-in-law Pauline Outlaw of Center Hill, FL; and a host of additional nieces and nephews, numerous cherished friends and acquaintances.

He was an active member of Linden Baptist Church until 1981; following the move to Inverness, he united with the First Baptist Church, Inverness where he enjoyed regular Sunday School and church attendance until his recent move to live with his niece, Marsha.

“ I met Johnnie several years ago at the Floral City Heritage Days. We talked and discovered we had much in common.....both grew up in central Florida, both were actual working cowboys, both knew many of the same people in the ranching business back then, and both had a love of the outdoors and all that goes with it. We lived only a few miles apart in Inverness, and I would go to Johnnie's or he would come to visit me and we would talk for hours about how things used to be. I have much respect for this man and am so sorry about his passing. I will surely miss our visits and sharing our past adventures together. I am proud to have known him and his service to his country. He truly was a great American!

“ My husband, David, and I have enjoyed a friendship with Mr. Outlaw's daughter, Mary, for several years. We have heard stories about her father but much to our regret, we never had the pleasure of sitting with him and hearing HIS stories. What an incredible and honorable life he lived. My sincerest condolences to the whole family. You've lost a bedrock of your family but he obviously laid the cornerstones for you on which to build a life to first serve God. Grace be with you.

“ How I will miss seeing Mr. Johnny at the Post Office in Inverness as his 'gait' was well known! He bounced as he walked, and talked. What a dear man he was, always a kind word and broad smile. I thank his family for his service to our country. It is men like him who make America great - and free. We will miss you, Mr. Johnny. I know Heaven will enjoy your 'gait' and broad smile! “ My sincere condolences on the passing of Uncle Johnny. He was a true gentleman and I always enjoyed my visits to the Outlaw home as a young girl - I recall that there were cookies involved, a small rocking chair and Raggedy Ann and Andy dolls. He and Aunt Almarene were so kind to my Dad (Carl). I'm sure he will be greatly missed by all. Rest in Peace.

“ My condolences on Johnny's passing. I was introduced to Johnny by my dad, Glenn S. Wade, some years ago at the Linden Cemetery Picnic. They had apparently known each other since childhood. I always looked him up at the picnic after my dad passed away in 1999. I'll miss our little chats at the picnic.
