“ God had called home another angel..Rest in this. You will see him again someday.. I feel your loss and will continually be praying for you...He is in the arms of Jesus now. As hard as it is-what could be better than that? Soon and very soon we will see the king and you will see your beloved son as well. May god give you his peace and comfort this day.

“ What a precious family. The Pacheco family is . May god give y'all the peace y'all need . I will never forget Kim what a vibrante and sweet girls she was . May they enjoy Jesus . And the beauty of heaven . And heather and children y'all are a fine family too. May God richly bless y'all and give y'all the love and peace that y'all need . God is there every time you need him. For a child of God it's not good by , it's see you later. Love you all. 1st Peter 5:7

“ Our thoughts and prayers go out to Matt's family and extended family. May God grant you peace and comfort in these trying times. I know it's hard to make sense of this now (why God called him home at such a young age...with so much more life to live). Just remember he hasn't left...he will always be in your fond memories and in your loving hearts. . God Bless!

“ Sorry for the lost of your loved one. The bible gives us hope for our dead loved ones. John 5:28 "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice 29.and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment".
