“ So sorry to hear of Jack's passing. Although I didn't get to know him for very long, I am so very glad that I did get to spend some time with Jack. He was always very welcoming to me when I was spending time with Kathy. My heartfelt thoughts for all of you.

“ Sorry to read of your passing, Jack; my condolences to Kathy and your family. I believe that one of your favorite pickleball players, my Uncle Ken Cross, needed a partner for doubles in the Heaven League, and put out a request for you. It took a few years for you to be ready, but of all the players he enjoyed, I'm sure he was happy to meet you on the court again. God Bless!
