

John Ribisi

September 1, 1947 - December 26, 2025

John Ribisi, born September 1, 1947, in Brooklyn, New York, passed away peacefully on December 26, 2025, at his home in Florida.

A devoted husband for 58 years, John leaves behind his beloved wife, JoAnn Ribisi, with whom he built a life filled with love, laughter, and unwavering partnership. He was the proud father of JoAnn Erwin, Justina Beck, Jamie Ribisi-Brale, and Joy Josephine, and cherished grandfather to Kristina Erwin. He also leaves behind his much-loved sons-in-law Samuel Erwin Jr., Chris Beck, and Brian Brale.

John was predeceased by his parents, Carmelo and Filippa Ribisi, his brother Joseph Ribisi, and his sister Frances Ribisi. He is survived by his sister, Mary Kenny, who continues to carry forward the family's stories and memories.

A dedicated and hardworking man, John ran Unlimited Screw Products, a successful hardware company that reflected his determination, skill, and entrepreneurial spirit. He raised his family in Kings Park, New York, where his work ethic and generosity shaped the lives of those around him. John had a deep love for the New York Yankees, and he enjoyed the excitement of visiting the casino as often as possible. Above all, he was a natural storyteller—someone who could captivate a room with his vivid recollections, humor, and charm. His stories, like his presence, will be deeply missed.

A celebration of John's life will be held this summer in New York, with the date to be announced. In lieu of flowers please send donations in his name to The Ronald McDonald House or St. Jude's Children's Research Hospital, organizations that he cherished.

Arrangements entrusted to Beyers Funeral Home of Leesburg, Florida.

Such a touching tribute. I will always remember how much he loved the Yankees and always had the newest technical equipment before everyone else. I believe his greatest legacy will be the beautiful, strong women in his life that made him a better man. I will miss you, Uncle John! Love you all xoxo

John was a special man. I was a customer of he and Artie in the 70s. We had wonderful connection. When I came to NY, John enjoyed getting as much money as he could from Artie and we tried to spend it all. It's funny he was a big Yankee fan as we went to a Yankee game and I he told me he had never been to a game before.

I remember he had hair when I knew him and his eye was not yet attended to. We went to Belmont race track and lots of great restaurants.

I found out about his death when I made my annual phone call and there was a different voice on the message.

I will miss John and his friend ship.

“Really sad to say goodbye to Uncle John. He was a wonderful person that added so much to the lives of so many people. He would always tell us great stories about growing up in Brooklyn and the characters there. His grandpa who owned the candy store on North 5th. And it's thanks to him and his injured eye that myself, my brothers, and now my children will not swing ropes around willy-nilly. He was always so fun and full of jokes. He gave me my fear of looking at the ceiling. I never did get to see those new lights he put in. He loved Games magazine, which I picked up from him. I'm glad that he had a great life full of love and fun. I'm sad that I won't get to hear the rest of his stories. See you again some day Uncle John.
