“ Blanche and Family, We were so sorry to hear of our friend John's passing last Saturday. He will be sadly missed by us, as we always looked forward to our Friday night dinners together. We've had so many laughs together as we think back.... and we want you to know how much we appreciate his helping us out (and you) over the past few years both at LGH and Hawthorne. We were so proud of him and his fight with cancer this past 1 1/2 years.....he gave it his all and we never heard him complain. Blanche, we know you meant the world to him and vice versa. We hope your memories of him and your good times together, stay forever with you. We wish we were there to pay our respects and give you a hug.....but know that we are there in spirit and would like to talk anytime you need a friend. May you find peace knowing he is at peace, and that he will watch over you until you see him again

“ There are no words to lighten the pain of death but the many wonderful memories help to get the family through this difficult time. These will last many generations to come. My dad had a beautiful soul filled with much laughter & consideration for anyone who shared his time. He carried an amazing spirit, enjoyed keeping busy & having fun. A strong person who hid his pain well. Earth has no sorrows that Heaven cannot heal. I love you dad, may you find a new comfort with the angels you now fly with.
