“ John and his family have been long time very much loved friends. John will be missed as he was a very special friend to my entire family. Our families had wonderful times together. John enriched our lives and the lives of our Church Family at Good Samaritan Church in Pinellas Park in ways we so much remember enriching our lives. He was a man among men. God Bless him forever. We always shall. We love you Joihn and will always miss you and remember. George will be so happy to be with you. Good times!! Bless you always. Gods people!!
