“ John was the kindest, most gentle, caring man. Humble. I worked with him for 25 years, every weekday, and never heard a negative word from his mouth. He was steady, solid. He was a helper, he had a big servants heart. He loved the Lord, and loved others. He walked in Jesus' steps. He loved the King James. You will be deeply missed, John, but we will see you again one day, and then, no more goodbyes. Fly high dear friend. 💖
