“ We would like to express our deep saddness over the loss of our dear friend and neighbor. His ever present smile and contagious laughter are greatly missed, but we can rejoice in the fact that his pain is now gone and his soul is reunited with lost loved ones. Our hearts go out to Cathy and her family, and please know that we will always be here for you. If there is anything we can do to ease your suffering during this difficult time, please don't hesitate to let it be known.
