

John Wolf

April 28, 2011

Obituary of John Wolf

John "Jack" Myers Wolf, 74, of The Villages, FL died April 28, 2011. Mr. Wolf was born in Wilmington, DE and moved to The Villages in 2009 from Bath, NC. He was a US Air Force Veteran, supervisor of Gas Operations for the DELMARVA Power and Light Co, retiring in 1994. He was a lifetime member of the Coast Guard Auxiliary, Flotilla #14. He enjoyed fishing & boating with his family, gardening, reading and in retirement, restoring antique cars.

Survivors include his wife of 51 years, Kay, of The Villages sons; Greg (Kim) of Baltimore, MD and Brian (Laura) of Wilmington, DE, brothers; Ron of The Villages, FL and Bob of Erwinville, LA, 4 Grandchildren and 1 Great Grandchild.

A private family service will be held at Florida National Cemetery, Bushnell, FL at the convenience of the family. In lieu of flowers, the family requests memorial donations be made to Cornerstone Hospice, 601 Casa Bella, The Villages, FL 32162.

Services

A private family service will be held at Florida National Cemetery, Bushnell, FL at the convenience of the family.

Memorial Donations

In lieu of flowers, the family requests memorial donations be made to Cornerstone Hospice, 601 Casa Bella, The Villages, FL 32162.

Tribute Wall

“ John Wolf

October 01, 2014 at 12:00 AM

“ Kay, my condolences go out to you. I will always remember John's visits to the library. He was always trying to teach me some German words. We have missed your visits to the library. My thoughts and prayers are with you. Winnifred Webster

Winnifred Webster - October 01, 2014 at 12:00 AM